

SERVICES

In addition to operating a national, victim-centered, information line, the Human Trafficking Resource Line provides referrals, resources, general information and training and technical assistance. Please see below for a description of our services.

Contact the HTRL or call us for more information on 1109

Tip Reporting

The HTRL takes tips about potential situations of human trafficking and facilitates reporting to anti-human trafficking and organized crime departments, local law enforcement, and service providers throughout the country.

Referrals

Through its extensive contacts database, the HTRL helps connect survivors of human trafficking with services, including case management, emergency shelter, legal services and counseling. The HTRL also assists organizations who serve victims by providing referrals to services and resources, and helps to connect community members with volunteer opportunities.

Resources & Information

Call Specialists can answer your questions about human trafficking and can respond to requests for information about a diverse array of topics within the realm of trafficking.

Training Assistance

The HTRL provides training that seeks to build individual and practitioner expertise and strengthen local anti-trafficking infrastructure to improve the nationwide response to human trafficking.
